Join Acting Illinois Department of Transportation Secretary Erica Borggren and key transportation officials to discuss plans for the South Suburban Airport (SSA) as the state evaluates financing, construction, and operational alternatives for an airport that will accommodate the growing transportation needs of the greater Chicagoland area and beyond.

Learn about SSA project specifics, projected timeline, technical information, environmental process, land acquisition and procurement information.

Located conveniently outside of Chicago, a major transportation hub in America's heartland, the South Suburban Airport will offer travelers and businesses an expanded array of options in air and freight travel.
